While entering yesterday morning the quiet presencts of the church on Broadway where we have heard t' u gospel preached for years, an unusual noise attracted our attention. A Fusionist—who evidently had subscribed thousands of dollars to the H., S. & T., paniemaking and Union-splitting Committe, and v do at least had succeeded in terrib'y burning his own f agers, though he hadn't yet acquired the wisdom of the burnt child, that dreads of the fire-was in a by th state of excitement. He must be in the gw scotten trade, judging from the explosive nature of his Sabbath-day conversation. We will give what we heard as nearly as possible in the words of the speckers:

A law-abiding citizen remarked to Mr. Fusionist that the mob had just driven a New-Yorker from the City of Charleston, where he had lived for some years in mercantile business, threatening him, unless he left the State immediately, with a coat of tar and feathers for expressing himself against disunion.

Fusionist apologized for the mob and said that they must have bud ample reason for their acts, for the mol interfered with no one unless for good cause.

Mr. A., a member of the church, remarked that mot aw now roled in a large section of the Union, and he thought it was hardly in taste for a citizen of New-York on the Sabbath and in church to justify a tyran nical and lawless mob. Under our system of govern ment the majority and not the mob were to rule.

Fusionist fired up and with violent gesticulations denounced his brother church member in particular and the whole Republican party in general as incendiary abolitionists, who might have saved the country by ac cepting Crittenden's compromise, but have refused even

Mr. A .- Certainly. After the verdict of the people just rendered, they have rejected, and justly, too, a con promise which not only would reverse this verdict, but would in substance open a slave mart in the City of New-York!

Purionist- In an angry voice, that echoed through the whole church | Tis a falsehood-tis a falsehoodand you know it is a falsehood when you say it! Mr. A .- But let me show you what might be don in New-York if the compromise were accepted. Fusionist-I won't bear it, I won't hear it. What you have said is a felsehood! a falsehood! and you knew it when you said it. (Highly excited, and goticulating in the face of Mr. A.) I won't hear you, and you have no right to speak.

Mr. A. (quietly)-You certainly won't hear me, not any one else, if you are so violent and make such a Fusionist-I have read the compromise, and know what it means, as well as you do, and you have stated a falsehood, and you know it, and I won't hear you.

Mr. A.—If you are a gentleman you will hear me, if you are not you won't. I insist that you shall hear me, and without violent interruption, and we shall see then who is guilty of falsehood, to say nothing about gentlementy decorum. Crittenden's Compromise, just rejected by Republican votes, legalizes the transit of slaves through the Free States, and protects and promotes the inter-State slave-trade, and would enable the slave-breeders of Maryland and Virginia to bring thousands of slaves in shackles and irons to New-York. erect slave jails here as at Richmond, and keep the slaves in them until the slave ships were ready to transport them to Louisiana and Texas, and then they could drive them in thousands, ironed together in pairs. through our streets, under the slave-driver's whip, to the vessels -- perhaps your vessels, as yours go to South ern ports. Meanwhile, the slave-breeders could meet the slave-traders here in our city, and make all their sales and purchases, receive the money, and deliver the slaves on board your vessels. This could b carried on to the extent of thousands of slaves day, if only Crittenden's Compromise transit of slaves through Free States should be permitted. That is what I call opening a slave mart in the City of New-Pusionist (more excited and londer than before)-I don't; it is no such thing. You have stated a falsehood. I know the meaning of words as well as you do.

Mr. A .- If you will look into Webster you will learn what slave-mart means. I will abide by that, as the Republican party does by the laws and the ballot box; and let that say out of whose mouth the falschood

At this moment the Sexton came out and said that the clergyman was at prayer, and the loud talking in the vestibule disturbed the congregation.

BESCENTS UPON LAGER BEER SALOONS AND ITALIAN DANCE AND GAMING-HOUSES,-Toward night yester day the proprietors of various liquor and lager been salcons about the City emboldened by the apparent want of attention paid them by the police during the day (which as stated in another column was unusually quiet) opened wide their doors for all to enter who chose. All the lager beer saloons in William street were in full operation and the orchestra's were filled with musicians who performed polkas, waltzes, and other light music. In accordance with orders issued by Superintendent Kennedy, Capt. Palmer and Sergeant Souder of the Fourth Ward made a descent upon the lager beer saloon Nos. 123 and 125 William street, where they found a large number of persons sitting at the tables drinking beer and listening to the music discoursed by a full band in the orchestra. The waiter girls and guests attempted to escape from the house when the police entered, but their egress was cut off and all were taken in custody. This descent created great excitement in the neighborhood, and rival saloons were darkened in a moment and closed up with remarkable celerity. M. Nicht, G. O. Hart, George Dedart and J. Hollancher were apprehended and locked up in the Fourth Ward Station House. The waiter girls were sent home.

A descent was also made upon the lager-beer saloon at the corner of Chatham street and New Bowery, and several of the inmates arrested and locked up. It was the intention of the police to have arrested persons found in other lager-beer saloons, where the quiet of the day was disturbed by frivolous music, but the proprietors of said places closed up too quick.

About 10 o'clock, Capt. Helme, with Sergeants Mount and Van Brunt of the Eighth Ward, accompanied by a large police force, made a descent upon the notorious Italian dance-house in the basement of No. 5 Macdongal street. Being fearful of a descent the proprietor of the place kept a boy stationed in the alley way leading to the place to give notice of the appear ance of the police. An officer, in citizen's dress, and disguised in a slonched hat a la Italian, preceded the posse and arrested the boy. Immediately thereafter Sergeant Mount, with his platoon, entered the alley, and, from the rear door, rushed upon the dancers, at the same moment that Captain Helme and Sergeant Souder month. ey found in the place, and locked them up in the station-house. There were a number of women with children in the hall, but they were sent home. After the place was closed, the police made a descent upon an Italian gaming house adjoining and arrested seven per-sons whom they found playing with dice. The barkeeper, Gio Batta Bareigalogo, was also taken in eus-tody and locked up.

During the evening the police at the same Ward arrested the barkeeper of Lafayette Hall on Broadway, and of the Mercer House in Mercer street, also of one or two saloons in Grand street. In possession of the Italians were found long knives, and, but for the large force of police engaged in the descent, there would no doubt have been bloody work.

During the evening, the police arrested in various parts of the city twenty-seven men and one woman on charge of violating the Sunday liquor law. Twenty men and nine women were arrested for intoxication Six men, found playing billiards, were also taken in custody. Of the total number, 17 were arrested in the Fourth Ward, 10 in the Eleventh Ward, 6 in the Twenty-first Ward, and the remainder in other CHILD BURNED TO DEATH .- Yesterday afternoon in infant son of Mr. George Dowd, residing at No. 425 First avenue, was burned to death by his clothes taking fire from the stove. . The father went out, leaving the mother asleep, and it is supposed that the little one, while playing about the room, fell against the stove, thus setting fire to his dress.

Rownyism.-Last evening a man named Matthew Underhill was badly beaten in front of the old Chat bam Theater, by some rowdies to him unknown. The injured man was taken to the Sixth Ward Station-House, where he received medical attendance.

FERSONAL LIABILITY OF THE COLLECTOR.

Ex-Judge Roosevelt, on behalf of the Collector of this port, noved to set saide executions issued against the Collector on judgments entered against him in two suits brought to recover buck duties paid under protest. It appears that now the issue of the executions the private property of the Collector was levied upon. It was contended that no executions could be issued against the Collector for the reason that all those daties were by law paid by him into the Sub-Tresury, and that as these menery parsed into the possession of the Government it was from the Government alone that it could be recovered back. On the other hand, Mr. Griswold for the plaintiffs argued that the question in the case was upon the construction of the act of 1885. The parties having paid the money to the Collector, and a wordet lawing been given against him in due course of law, he must pay it back again. the Judge reserved his decision.

SATURDAY, Dec. 22-P. M. The Stock market has been strong and active through the day, under an increased demand for investment, and a more general disposition to speculate for the rise. The sharp corner in Erie, resulting not from any combination of operators, but from an unexpected foreign demand for the stock, has had its influence in opening the eyes of speculators to the real condition of the market and the awkward position of the shorts. Movements having this as the strategical base were developed during the week, and the improvement on Friday and to-day has no doubt been to some extent owing to these speculative schemes. There is, however, beyond all question, a more cheerful and hopeful feeling in the Stock market, and the accomplished fact of secession, so far as it can be carried out by the South Carolina Convention, has had no unfavorable effect. We may conclude that much of the depression recently wit nessed was in consequence of an abrupt liquidation of time contracts and of forced sales of hypothecated stock, these following the alarm created by the revolutionary movements of the South, as collateral troubles condensed into a short space of time. The most exciting movement of the day was in Eric, which advanced to 381 at the First Board, a rise of nearly 5 per cent. The curchases on foreign account have reduced the stock on the nurket, not assented, to a comparatively small number of shares; and this absolute scarcity of stock has forced the shorts to buy for delivery. New-

River, Harlem, and Reading, were all better and in good demand. There was a well distributed business in the Western shares, with about the same improvement in each. Toleda was an exception-opening at 291, but falling to 28 on the call. At the Second Board, however, this stock recovered also, and there was a firm market, with some irregularity through the session. Erie and Hudson River fell off Il per cent, and New-York Central was I per cent lower, but the Western shares were generally better. The market closes steady at the following prices: United States 5s, '74, 95; Tennessee State 6s, 78; Virginia State 6s, 78 280; Missouri State 6s, 691 20 70; Pacific Mail Steamship Company 814 382; New-York Central Railroad, 754 3754; Eric Railroad, 364 3 37; Hudson River Railroad, 43 & 431; Harlem Railroad, 14 w14; Harlem Preferred, 35 w351; Reading Railroad, 351 @361; Michigan Central, 494 @491; Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana Railroad, 14 214 Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana Guaranteed, 32½ ± 33; Panama Railroad, 118½ ± 119½, Illinois Central (Scrip) 66½ ± 67½; Galena and Chicago Railroad, 64½ ± 64½; Cleveland and Toledo Railroad, 30½ ± 30½; Chicago and Rock Island Railroad, 521-3524; Chica go, Burlington and Quincy Railroad, 63 a 65; Illinois Central 7a 90 201.

The market for foreign bills is again heavy, under free supplies drawn against produce and stocks. The bankers appear to be the only buyers, standing at 104 #1044 nominal for banking, and leading drawers having made settlement at 104. Commercial signatures are 100 @ 103]. Francs continue dull at 5.50 @ 5.40. This continued low ruling of exchanges guarantees a continuance of the imports of gold from Europe. The sterling rate has now stood about five weeks below the point at which specie could be profitably imported, and shows no promise of improvement. In the panic of 1857, although the rate for sterling bills fell below the specie point, yet the depression lasted but about two weeks, and within three weeks gold was moving both ways across the Atlantic.

Freights-Rates are a shade firmer. To Liverpool, 200 bales Cotton at id.: 1,000 bbls. Flour, at 2s. 7(d.: 26 000 bush. The following dividends have been declared: The Mechanics' Bank has declared a semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent, payable on the 2d of January; the Tradesmen's Bank, a dividend of 4 per cent, payable on the 8th of January; the Merchants' Bank, a semiannual dividend of 31 per cent, payable on the 2d of January. The Merchants' Exchange Bank 31 # cent, payable 2d January. The exchanges on Philadelphia and Baltimore are still better. On the former city the rate is down to 14 @ 11 & cent, and on the latter to 24 221 W cent discount. On Boston, the rate is par to be cent discount. On Chicago, the rate has an improving appearance also, but the change is not important. The open market for money continues to exhibit more favorable features. There is a rather better demand for paper, while the supply of favorite names is quite limited. The nominal range of rates for "gilt-edged" is 12@15 F cent, but some transactions have been made at lower figures. On call, money is 6@7 ? cent, and abundant. The Bank Statement to-morrow will show a considerable increase in the specie average, notwithstanding a considerable drain to the South, and the fact that an important portion of the English receipts have not yet reached the banks. From the best data in our possession, we assume that these institutions will hold on Monday morning $21,000,000 of specie, although the average may not show so large an amount. The loans will not probably show much change, but the deposit line must show a marked increase. The amount of loan certificates affoat is about $6,800,000. The payments into the Sub-Treasury to-day on account of the 5 V cent loan of 1871 reached about $430,000, in addition to $450,000 in Treasury Notes forwarded to Washington on the same account. This leaves, we think, about two millions, the payments upon which are in default, and this is the last day of grace. We presume there were some further payments at Philadelphia and Washington. At a meeting of the Commissioners of the Canal Fund, held at the Canal Department, on the 18th day of December, 1860, the following resolution was udopted:

Whereus. It is represented and believed that the loan of $41,200,600—notice for proposals for which has been and is now being published—will not be taken bearing an interest of six percent unless the time of payment be largely extended; and Whereus, in the opinion of this Board the interest of the State would be prejudiced to a greater extent by any considerable extension of the time of payment, than by an increase of the rate of interest on a short loan; therefore

Resolved, That the said loan be made for the term in said notice specified, and that the same shall bear interest at the rate of screaper centum, as expressed in the annexal notice.

A private telegram from New-Orleans to-day quotes Sterling exchange at 100 @ 102.

The shipment of gold to-day was $200,000, to New-Orleans. The banks having rescinded their resolution to issue loan certificates upon foreign coins, the plethora of sovereigns, &c., received by the recent steamers has become embarrassing. Under that resolution the banks found that their vaults were being filled up with foreign gold which was not a legal tender, while their American coins were being drained away from them to the South. While thirty days was required for recoinage, they could not receive this gold on de posit and allow dealers to check against it, and this difficulty induced the application made at Washington for a law making foreign coins a legal tender at specified rates, that for sovereigns being about $1 831. Such a law has been promised, but no action yet taken. Meanwhile waiting the action of Congress, the Mint has come to the aid of receivers to some extent. The authorities of the Mint have decided to recoin foreign gold, testing it, but not putting it through the process of refining, for which the machinery of the Mint is not sufficient for the present glut. By this shortened process deposits can be paid off in about ten days, and under this arrangement several of the banks have consented to receive foreign coins on deposit from dealers, and send them to the Mint. This will give considerable relief to receivers of gold. The amount of new coins received from the Mint, and paid out this week, is nearly $1,100,000, some of which was for gold deposited on the 12th inst. The gold deposited at the Away office for coinage during the week was $3,600,000. Sovereigns are selling in Wall street at $4 81 2 $4 82. It will be seen by our telegraphic disputches that the Fulton and City of Manchester bring about $650,000 in gold, and report more on the

The City of Manchester and Fulton bring very favorable advices in regard to breadstuffs, which were higher, even with large receipts. Cotton was active and steady. The condition of affairs here, of which they had advices to the 1st of December, did not have much effect. American Securities did not show much change, but Consols had advanced to 92) #92), ex dividend.

It is understood that the postponement of the call for additional securities from the Illinois banks is tanta-York Central advanced to 764, and was very steady mount to the withdrawal of it.

The following are Mesers. Thompson Brothers' clos-ng rates for Currency and Exchange to-day:

The Receiver of the Eric Road has published the usual annual statement of the earnings and expendicures, from which we gather that the business of the road, for year ending, Sept. 30, yielded a profit of $1.819.327, of which the interest on the mortgage debt, and rents of connecting roads, consumed $1,508,539, leaving $310,818 78 to apply to the interest on the unsecured bonds amounting to $6,660,500. This is equal to about 41 P cent. The gross increase in the traffic of the road over the previous year was $608,172 38, of which $688,473 97 was in freight. The increase of net arnings was $388,425 55. The increased expenses are $303,348, of which $92,026 is in freight cars, $71,155 is in fuel, $31,128 in track repairs, &c.
